

The minister of interior, the director general of the police force, his deputy inspector general the management and leadership corporation and their staff, sincerely congratulate the Sudanese people on the occasion of the anniversary of the glorious October Revolution, and avail this opportunity, to express their full appreciation and pride of the remarkable civilization behaviour, accompanied the marches of the twenty-first of October 2019, which clearly contributed to the implementation of the participants' security project and reflects a good democratic practices, in a civil state ruled by law, which we implement to preserve the dignity of Sudanese people, and safeguard their rights, to achieve justice. we also apologize for diverting some main roads in the capital which led to some traffic stoppage, we look forward to a promising future of our country, in which the value of respecting and enforcing law remains the highest standards towards a stable and secure homeland.