

Prime Minister, Dr Abdalla Hamdok asserted Sudan's keenness to cement ties of cooperation with Sultanate of Oman by way serving the common interest between the two countries , underlining commitment of the transitional government to preparing investment climate for attracting investors. This came Tuesday when he met at his office the Omani Ambassador to Sudan, Suleiman bin Saud Al-Jaber who conveyed to the Prime Minister congratulations of the Omani leadership on formation of the transitional government. The Omani Ambassador underscored Oman support to the Sudanese transitional government's programs , renewing his country's resolve to boost cooperation with Sudan , particularly in economic domain.